

Vocabulary

From HTML to Homepage

These terms and phrases will be used throughout the lesson. You can come here to review your understanding of these words as you work through your practice activities and projects.

Bug: A bug is a problem that prevents a website or app from running as it should.

CSS: Cascading Style Sheets is the code used to add styles to webpages.

Debugging: The process of solving bugs.

HTML: Hypertext Markup Language is the code used to build the structure of a webpage.

HTTP: Hypertext Transfer Protocol is the protocol computers use to exchange files and information on the web.

Javascript: A programming language that allows developers to add interactivity and logic to webpages.

Rendering: The process that the browser follows to turn the HTML, CSS, and Javascript into visual form.

Software Developer: A person who uses code to create programs, games, websites etc.

Syntax: The structure of statements in a language.

Web Browser: The program that allows users to navigate and experience the World Wide Web.