

Vocabulary

Organizing Website Files

These terms and phrases will be used throughout the lesson. You can come here to review your understanding of these words as you work through your practice activities and projects.

Absolute: The location of the file with its complete address

Folder: Location of a group of files in your computer

Hosting: A company that rents server space for websites

Homepage: The first page of your website.

HTTPS: The way computers communicate with each other in a secured way

Relative: A file or directory that is relative to the location of the root folder

Root folder or Project root: the folder where your web page resides.

Server: A computer connected to the internet that is programmed to serve the files of your website

SSL Certificate: A program that allows for secured connection between computers.